To kick off the year, we are warmly inviting visiting industry professionals and (inter)national curators to take part in an artistic exchange with members of Berlin's independent performing arts community during the non-stop theater frenzy of the 100° Berlin Festival. Short presentations and personal conversations make it possible to get to know tourable work „made in Berlin“. Sophiensaele and Ballhaus Ost will bundle the work of artists and groups who are associated with the respective institutions, HAU Hebbel am Ufer presents selected jury prize winners of the 100° over the last years.

Participation is free of charge, but we do ask you to register at info@berlin-diagonale.de or at the LAFT Berlin stands at the 100° Berlin Festival. You can also find more information about Berlin Diagonal at www.berlin-diagonale.de.
