

OPEN CALL

OPEN CALL STONEWALL_UCKERMARK

On the 29th of June 2019 the uprisings that have come to be known as the Stonewall Riots in Christopher Street in New York turn 50. A historical event that has become the foundational myth of a queer emancipation movement and – as an act of successful resistance, mostly by Black transwomen*, drag queens, sexworkers, homeless people and Latinas* – is celebrated annually and globally as Christopher Street Day.

We, Tucké Royale and Johannes Maria Schmit, take this, in co-production with HAU Hebbel am Ufer, as a reason to celebrate at an unexpected site. Come along and be there, when the age of new self-evidence begins!

On the anniversary of the Stonewall Riots a convoy of Golf 2 cars sets out for Uckermark, a region one hour north of Berlin. Stations on the 12-hour trip are both initiatives and projects that have a longstanding history of engaging in LGBTIQ* struggles, as well as sites that are carrying the memory of queer victories and experiences. By joining the tour you are also becoming part of the movie “Stonewall_Uckermark”, which will be shot during summer and will be premiered at HAU Hebbel am Ufer in Berlin in autumn this year: a queer Heimatfilm.

The main character of the fiction, Markus Hawemann (played by Tucké Royale), has always lived in Uckermark. Sometimes he daydreams about a queer family joining him; by the lake, at the bus stop, or in the Plattenbau where he lives. Those are the scenes we would like to shoot with you and the main cast.

We take the past half century as a good reason to remember and reflect as well as to celebrate our existence as intersectional beings. A return to the peripheral and non-bourgeois narratives in the countryside.

The amount of participants is limited. Please write us to the e-mail adress below by the 10th of May in a few words who you are or why you would like to join. By the end of May we will get back to you via e-mail: stonewall50@schuldenbergfilms.com

- Departure: 29.6.2019, 9:30 a.m., HAU Hebbel am Ufer (HAU2), Hallesches Ufer 32, 10963 Berlin
- A driver's license is welcome, but not necessary. Please let us know in the e-mail.
- It is possible to join the convoy in Brandenburg as well. Please let us know in your e-mail.
- Food will be provided.
- Dress-Code: Come as YOU are / Impress yourself!
- The cars will bring you back to Berlin by the end of the day.

→ www.hebbel-am-ufer.de

Funded by: Hauptstadtkulturfonds

